

Who has been spotted taking care this week?

|-------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Year 3/4New ZealandClass | Isla - Grace -ResponsibilityIsla always tries to help her class stay tidy and enjoys the responsibility of making sure she is proud of her classroom                                                      | Eli - ResilienceEli is always so determined to try his hardest and do his best. He has really impressed me this week! Well done Eli!                                                                                           |
| Year 3/4SpainClass       | Max - FocusYou have shown great focus and enthusiasm during class work and have already built great friendships! Well done!                                                                                    | Emmie - ResilienceYou have shown great resilience, persevering even when things felt challenging! You have become more independent and confident, and performing a poem in front of everyone was a big achievement! Well done! |
| Year 3/4MadagascarClass  | Poppy - Grace - FocusPoppy has worked well this week to make sure she completes work to the best of her ability- well done!                                                                                    | Isaac F- PerseveranceIssac has worked extra hard this week to rehearse his poem to make sure it's performance ready! He also volunteered to confidently perform first to the rest of year 3 and 4- what a superstar!           |
| Year 5/6JapanClass       | Paige H &amp; Nevaeh S -TeamworkFor working well in sync and concentrating on how to create flow in their yoga routine this week!                                                                         | George N - PerseveranceYou have worked really hard getting ready for your Reading SATS. You have achieved greater depth for the first time! Well done!                                                                         |
| Year 5/6ArgentinaClass   | Izzy SFocusWorking really hard in our SATs sessions                                                                                                                                                       | Zach DRespectAble to distance himself from distractions to ensure he is getting the most out of lessons                                                                                                                   |
| Year 5/6MexicoClass      | Isabelle, Sophia and EvaFor outstanding teamwork when performing your poem to the Year 5/6 cohort.You showed dedication, worked well together and put in a lot of practice to learn the poem off by heart. |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |

Well done for taking care!
