

Who has been spotted taking care this week?

Year 3/4 New Zealand Class	Bobbie Wright- Resilience Bobbie has spent all week showing her best self, trying her hardest and impressing every teacher she has worked with. Bobbie has worked really well with things she is not as confident with and we couldn't be prouder of her!	Camden-Joe Barkel- Respect Camden showed his best self during recent school events. He showed excellent self-control and listened carefully throughout. His positive attitude and respectful participation were a credit to him.
Year 3/4 Spain Class	Hunter - Respect Hunter has impressed us this week with his art work. He invented his own machine in art which was incredible. Hunter shows respect as he comes into school every morning and says good morning.	Dexter - teamwork Dexter has been so impressive in English lessons. He is working hard in all of his lessons and is really being part of our team. Dexter's art work is excellent and he wowed us with his machine drawings.
Year 3/4 Madagascar Class	Noah N- Focus Noah has worked hard in English this week to improve his sentences using a purple polisher pen- well done!	Noah B- Focus Noah focused well during the archery this week despite finding it tricky initially. He managed to hit an arrow on the target- well done!
Year 5/6 Japan Class	Megan - Resilience For taking part in the Y6 Production. Comedy is tricky but you did an amazing job performing! Well done!	Oliver - Resilience You have coped with many changes this week and have even tried new things! You are a superstar!
Year 5/6 Argentina Class	Molly S Resilience Performing by herself at short notice in front of the whole school!	Skylar Respect ALWAYS a huge help in class and around school. Very thoughtful and kind.
Year 5/6 Mexico Class	Hudson - Resilience Missing a week of school didn't stop you from succeeding. You worked incredibly hard to catch up on your learning and went on to write your newspaper report independently. Your perseverance and positive	Myles - Responsibility You were an amazing backstage manager during the Year 6 show. Your organisation, efficiency and willingness to help everyone kept everything running smoothly. Your hard work was noticed by all the attitude were fantastic to see. Well done!	adults and played a big part in the show's success. Well done!
