

Newsletter 4

17th October 2025

We have reached the end of a very successful first half term back at school. We wish you all a lovely half-term break and look forward to seeing everyone again on Tuesday 4th November.

Pupil Shout Out:

Well done to our Boccia team who claimed first place in their competition on Tuesday!

Parent Shout Out

Huge thanks to our wonderful parents for supporting the Halloween Disco by helping us prepare, decorating the school and running the stalls on the night – we know they secretly loved it!

At SJS, we take care of ourselves, our work, each other and the world around us

Half Term Homework

The BBC is running its 500 Words Story Competition again this year. It's a great chance for children to use their imagination and have fun writing their own short stories. More information to follow but please find the details here:

Golden Table winners 10/10

Dates

INSET day: 3rd November

Anti-Bullying Week: 10th-14th November

Odd Socks Day to raise mental health awareness: 10th November

Michael Rosen Day Thursday 13th November

Pupil Shout out

Huge shout out to Hallie who recently gave an outstanding gymnastics performance at her club!

Future Plans

Our new school website is almost ready to go-live! We hope the new website will be much more user friendly and far easier to navigate to find the information you need.

World Mental Health Day Cake Sale

We raised £65 for Young Minds

At SJS, we take care of ourselves, our work, each other and the world around us

Firework Safety

Please see this really useful website for firework safety guidance for both adults and children:

Date correction:

The Calverton Christmas Lights Switch on is Friday 28th November and we hope to have our choir singing there – TBC due to the Y5/6 trip being on the same day!

Thank you

Huge thanks to Miss Singleton who steps in to support around the school whenever and wherever she is needed! This week she enjoyed supporting the MDS at lunchtime both outside on the playground and in the dining room. Thank you Miss S!
