

Spooky Poem Competition!

Do you love Halloween? Do you enjoy writing and creating spine-tingling stories or eerie rhymes? Then this is your chance to show off your creativity in the SJS Spooky Poem Competition!

 Your challenge: Write a short spooky poem to give us chills or giggles this Halloween! It could be about ghosts, witches, haunted houses, creepy creatures — or anything mysterious and magical.

Closing Date: Hand your poem to your class teacher by Friday 10th October

Winners and prizes:

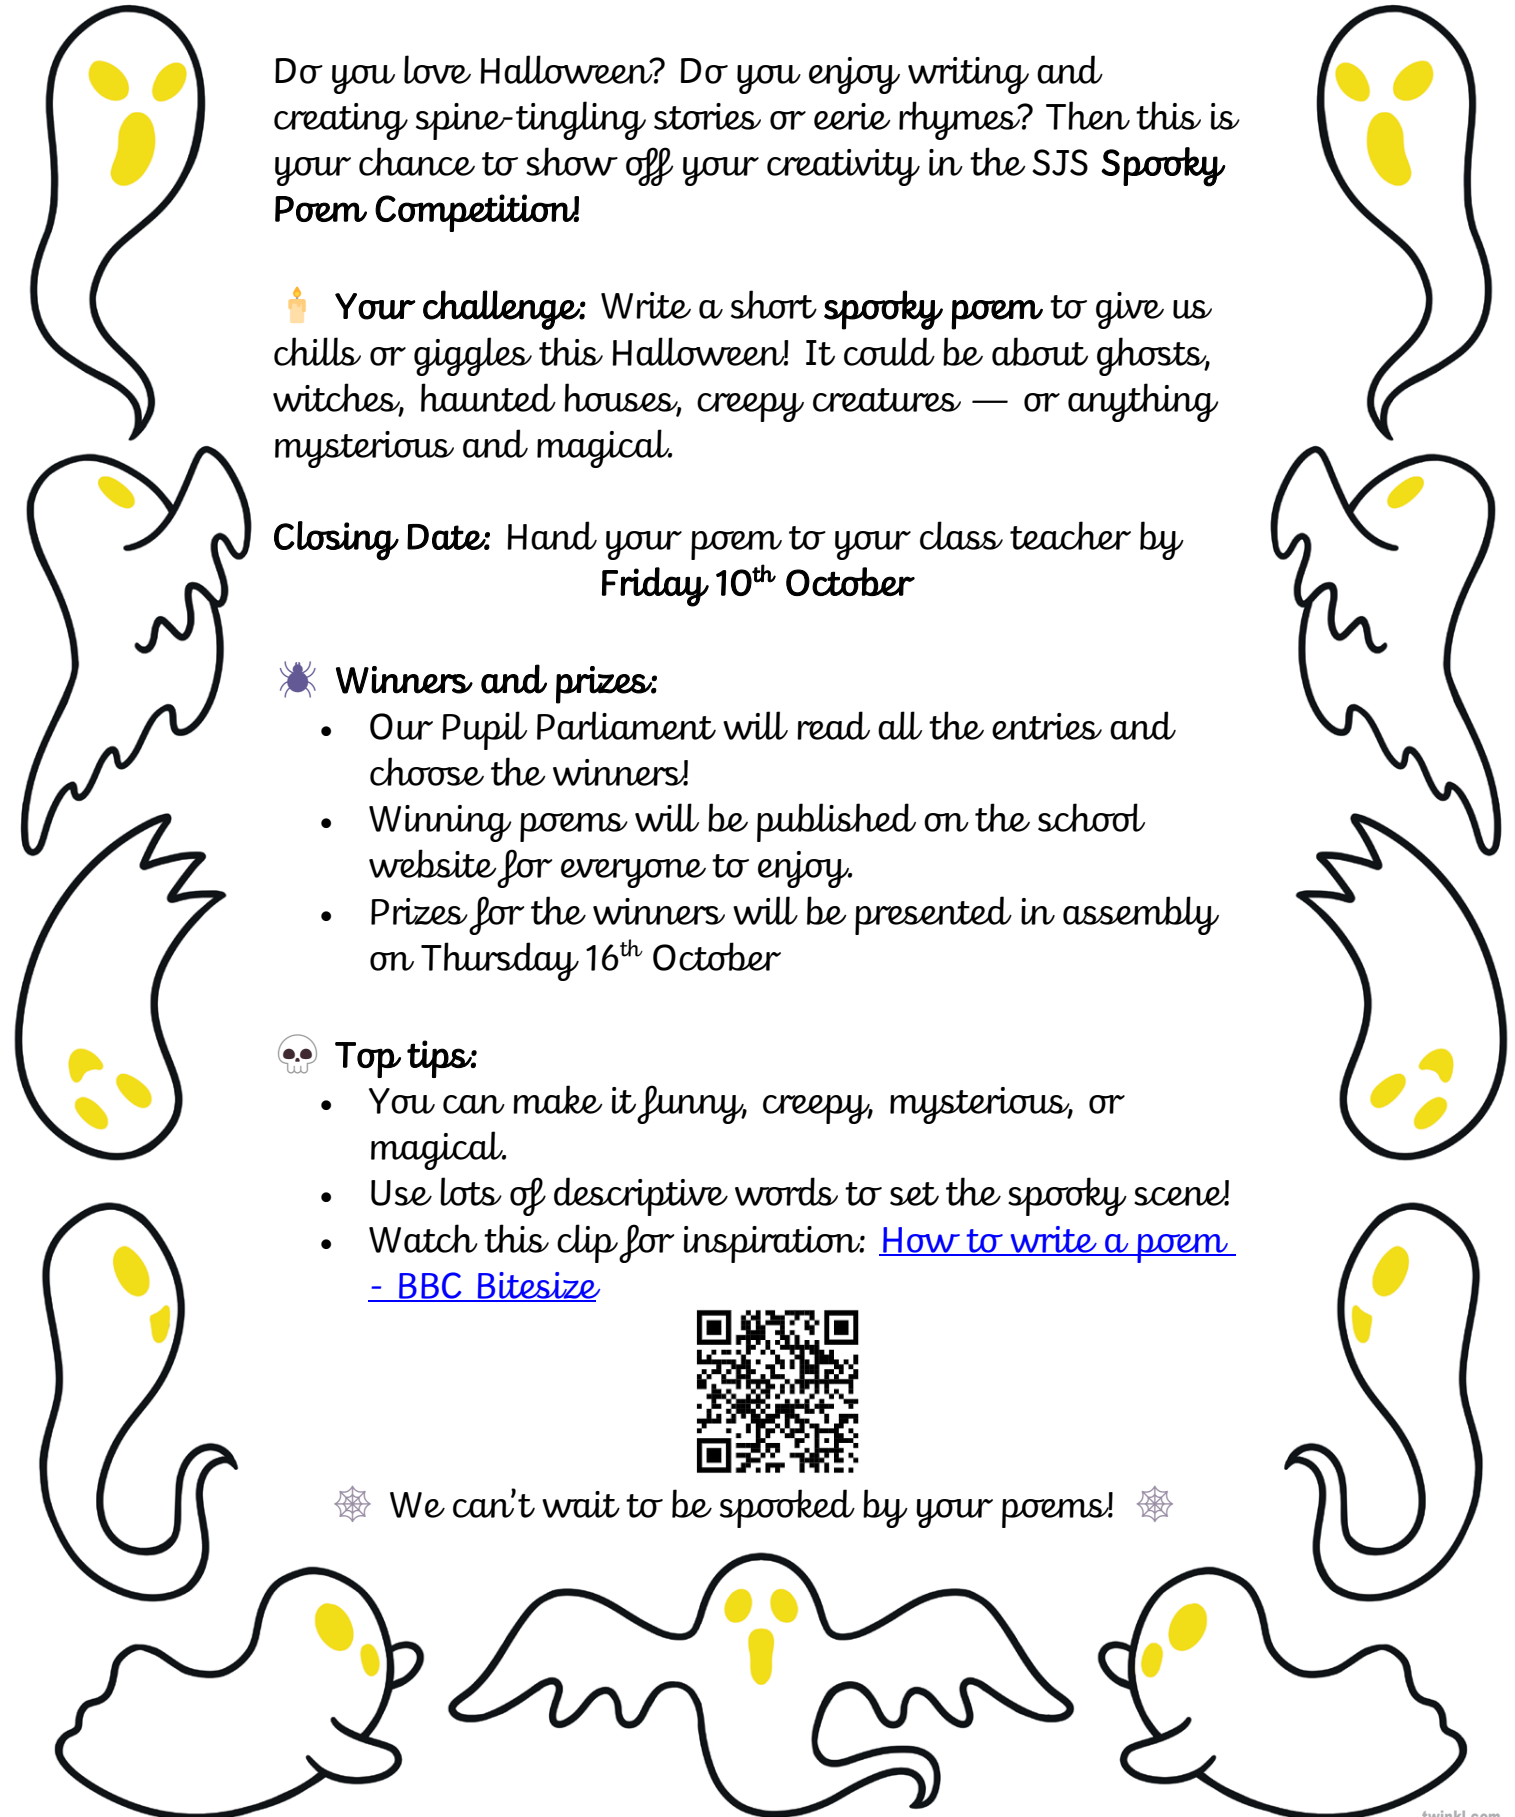

- Our Pupil Parliament will read all the entries and choose the winners!
- Winning poems will be published on the school website for everyone to enjoy.
- Prizes for the winners will be presented in assembly on Thursday 16th October

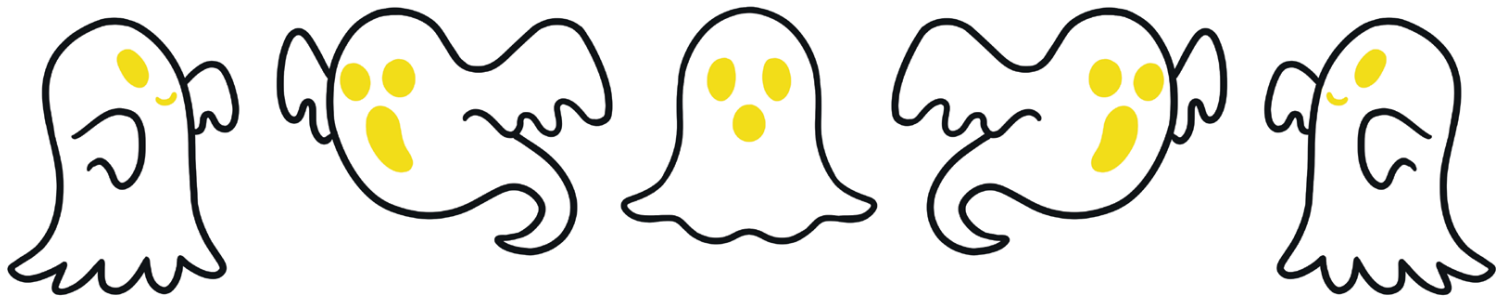

Top tips:

- You can make it funny, creepy, mysterious, or magical.
- Use lots of descriptive words to set the spooky scene!
- Watch this clip for inspiration: How to write a poem - BBC Bitesize

 We can't wait to be spooked by your poems!

TITLE: _____

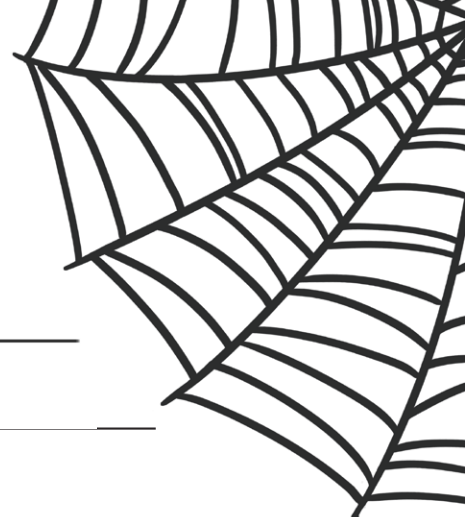

WRITTEN BY: _____

WRITTEN BY:

[illegible]

[illegible]